Yuruma Journeys

Day 1. Rurrenabaque – Yuruma (Madidi National Park)

Night in cabin /
tree-tent

Lunch, dinner

Bilingual guide

Pickup from the hotel or airport and transfer to the port of Rurrenabaque. Boat navigation along the Beni River to the Tuichi River (4–5 hours), passing through the Bala Canyon and entering Madidi National Park.

Hike along the Wabu trail to Refugio Yuruma (Santa Rosa Lake) and accommodation in tree-tents. Depending on the departure time from Rurrenabaque, lunch will be served either en route or at Refugio Yuruma after arrival.

In the afternoon, a guided walk along the Lucachi trail to observe macaws, parrots, Lucachi monkeys (endemic to Madidi), and a variety of exotic plants. Afterward, return on foot to the camp.

Dinner followed by a night walk, where it is possible to observe insects such as the praying mantis (Brunneria subaptera), the sword-nosed bat (Lonchorhina aurita), and a variety of tarantulas.

Day 2. Yuruma (Madidi National Park)

Night in cabin /
tree-tent

• Early breakfast followed by a hike along the Tejón trail to explore the tropical rainforest, ancient trees, monkeys, peccaries, birds (macaws, serere, and toucans), and various Amazonian species. Then return on foot to the camp for lunch.

• Lunch in the lodge and time to rest.

Breakfast,
lunch, dinner

• In the afternoon, activities at Santa Rosa Lake: canoe ride (ideal for spotting monkeys and birds that are part of the lake's ecosystem), piranha fishing, and the chance to enjoy a swim in the largest lake in Madidi.

• Dinner. Afterwards, there will be a cultural talk, where our native guides from Amazonian communities will share local stories and legends.
